Doshier Appoints Manager of Therapy Services

SOUTHPORT – Doshier Memorial Hospital has appointed Scott Passingham, MPT, to the role of Manager of Therapy Services. Scott received his Master’s in Physical Therapy from East Carolina University in May, 2000 and has been a part of the Therapy team at Doshier since April, 2006. In his new role, Scott will oversee all Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy, and Speech services at Doshier.

“Scott’s investment in the successful outcomes of his patients and his commitment to the success of the Doshier Therapy team has proven that he will bring great value as a manager,” said Lynda Stanley, President of Doshier Memorial Hospital and Foundation.

“Scott has been an asset to the Doshier Therapy Department for the last fifteen years,” said Doshier CEO and CMO Dr. Brad Hilaman. “I have every confidence that he will provide insights and innovation to the Therapy Team that will enable this area of our organization to evolve in ways that can meet the changing needs of our patients.”

Scott has three children and resides in Sneads Ferry, NC with his wife and family.
