Doshier Hospital Announces Appointment of Permanent CEO and President

SOUTHPORT, NC – The Doshier Memorial Hospital Board of Trustees have announced that they have permanently appointed Brad Hilaman, MD, JD, FACOG, as CEO and Lynda Stanley, MHA, FACHE as the hospital’s President.

Both Hilaman and Stanley, who had been named interim CEO and President respectively in February of this year, have a long history with Doshier and the local community. Dr. Hilaman has been affiliated with Doshier since 1995. He graduated from Jefferson Medical College of Thomas Jefferson University in 1976 and from Georgetown Law School in 1988. A well-known and respected Obstetrician and Gynecologist, Dr. Hilaman recently retired from Doshier’s Women’s Health clinic. He is also the hospital’s Chief Medical Officer and primarily responsible for the direction and management of the hospital’s highly successful and award-winning Wound Center.

Ms. Stanley was COO of Doshier Hospital from 1986 until 2014 when she became President of the hospital’s newly formed Foundation. She graduated from UNC Greensboro with a BS in Medical Technology and has a Master’s degree in Health Administration from Central Michigan University. She is a Fellow of the American College of Health Care Executives. Ms. Stanley has been a key figure in the success of the Doshier Hospital Foundation and the formation of the Brunswick Wellness Coalition.

“We have great confidence that Doshier is well positioned to handle all of the challenges and changes that the healthcare world continues to face, and to excel at strategically planning for our future,” said Doshier Board of Trustees Chairman Robert Howard. “This could not be accomplished without the amazing team at Doshier under the leadership of President Lynda Stanley and CEO Brad Hilaman. They have proven beyond any reasonable doubt that they know how to get the job done.”
