SOUTHPORT, NC - Doshier Memorial Hospital today announced that Chief Financial Officer, Brandon Hughes, CPA, has resigned to take a position with an outside organization.

Mr. Hughes, who has a comprehensive background in healthcare finance, joined Doshier in 2017 as the Director of Finance with key areas of focus including the annual budget, cost reports, reimbursement, and audits, before his appointment as interim and ultimately permanent CFO the last two years. Mr. Hughes is respected among hospital administration and the Doshier Board of Trustees for the quality of information and analysis he has provided, which has supported the organization in shaping a sound financial strategy during his tenure. Doshier President and CEO Lynda Stanley said, "We greatly appreciate Brandon's contributions to Doshier and wish him well in his future endeavors."

An interim CFO will serve in Mr. Hughes' place, and the recruitment process for a permanent CFO will begin immediately.
