Doshier Announces Latest “Triple E” Recipient

SOUTHPORT— Mark Herzog, PTA, a Physical Therapy Assistant in the Doshier Therapy Department, is the latest recipient of the Doshier Memorial Hospital Employees Exceeding Excellence, “Triple E” Award. Herzog has been with Doshier for 17 years and has worked in his field for 21. In the words of his colleagues, Mark, “Goes above and beyond his job requirements and tailors his treatment to meet the needs of his patients with exceptional service.” Mark is said to not only have a talent for making patients feel comfortable, but that he is also an excellent patient educator.

Mark, who is originally from upstate New York, completed his Associates degree in the Physical Therapy Assistant program Maria College in Albany, NY. Mark, his wife Sarah, and their two children Sophia and Max, live in Kure Beach.

Doshier Triple E’s are nominated by their peers on a quarterly basis.
