Doshier appoints new Chief Financial Officer

SOUTHPORT—Brandon Hughes, CPA, has been appointed as the new Chief Financial Officer at Doshier Memorial Hospital. Mr. Hughes joined Doshier in January 2017 as the Director of Finance with key areas of focus including the annual budget, cost reports, reimbursement, and audits.

Mr. Hughes, who has over 15 years of experience in healthcare finance, previously worked for Wake Forest Baptist Health in Winston-Salem, NC as the Manager of Revenue Accounting and held prior positions at Tenant Healthcare, Southeastern Health, and Duke University.

Hughes earned his Master of Science and Bachelor of Science degrees from East Carolina University. Hughes is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Healthcare Financial Professional.

“As a Doshier staff member for over four years, Brandon understands our culture, our values, and our vision,” said Lynda Stanley, President of Doshier Memorial Hospital and the Doshier Foundation. “We are confident that in his new role, Brandon will continue to make a positive impact on our financial operations and the organization as a whole.”

Brad Hilaman, MD, Doshier CEO and CMO says, “Brandon has demonstrated his financial expertise and leadership qualities since he began his tenure with Doshier in 2017. Brandon will continue to play a key role in our growth and transformation, helping to optimize Doshier’s financial strategy, so that we may continue to offer the best possible services and programs to our community.”

Mr. Hughes resides in Southport with his wife and their 2 children, enjoys kayak fishing, gardening, and is a member of Generations Church.
